

Thursday June 12th

Christian et Christine, Dir. Justin Chiao 13min

Chris, a boy who dreams of auditioning for the role of the princess in a school production of 'Sleeping Beauty', taps into the realm of the family's past narrated by his deceased mother, Elisabeth Laurent, after he got rejected by his father George

The Slip-Up, Dir. Matt Bradenburg 8min

An awkward geek goes on a date with an out-of-his-league beauty. Unbeknownst to her (but beknownst to him), her dress starts having a wardrobe malfunction, and he slowly loses control while trying to keep up the facade of not noticing.

Naked Ambition, Dir. Sofian Khan 7min

An inside look at the famous Naked Cowboy of Times Square.

Kissed, Dir. Todd Bevan 9min

A hopeful girl relies on the power of a mistletoe and good luck charms to make her night magical

The Revolutionary, Dir. Peter Blackmann 4min

A hopeful girl relies on the power of a mistletoe and good luck charms to make her night magical

Trust me, I'm a Lifeguard, Dir. Tony Glazer 16min

A Bro-Mantic comedy about two lifeguards who, when confronted with the end of summer, are forced to make adult decisions such as: What is the meaning of life? What makes a good Speedo? And, are those clams safe to eat?

Hypothetically, Dir. Stephanie Dawson 5min

A short spoof on the mob genre.

Under The Table, Dir. Grace McLeod 19min

A family of self-proclaimed liberals is forced to address underlying hypocrisy in this contemporary comedy about privilege and tolerance set on Manhattan's Upper East Side.

The Goldfish, Dir. Mathieu Young 10min

This film is an adaptation of Etgar Keret's famed short story 'What Of This Goldfish Would You Wish?' in which a young man named Yoni (Jason Ritter) sets out to make a documentary about the secret longings of everyday Americans. By knocking on strangers doors and asking them this question: 'If you had a magic goldfish that granted you three wishes, what of this goldfish would you wish?' Yoni thinks he will discover the hopes, dreams and greatest wishes of his fellow citizens. (Lucy Punch).

The Story of Milo & Annie, Dir. Harris Doran 17min

THE STORY OF MILO & ANNIE is a love story about Annie, a restless secretary, who tries to discover the mystery of Milo, a guy who hasn't spoken since he was six years old. The film stars Harris Doran and Rachel McKeon, with Orange Is The New Black's Alysia Reiner and Academy Award Nominee Cathy Moriarty.

Half & Half, Dir. Christian LaMorte 13min

A young man who struggles with O.C.D. experiences an intersection in his routine when he finds a symbolic piece of jewelry which belongs to a young woman he desires.

FZ Anonymous, Dir. Josh Bohoskey 7min

A support group dedicated to those that have been put in the friend zone.

The Present, Dir. Holle Singer 17min

An obsessed girl journeys alone through a landscape of memory and instant messages as she makes her way from Brooklyn to Costa Rica.

Bodies in Irreversible Detriment, Dir. Ben Lazarus 25min

Horatio has Body Integrity Identity Disorder, where people seek to amputate appendages to make themselves whole. He joins a group for dealing with the affliction, thus meeting Sarah, a quirky BIIID sufferer. Both intertwine in an attempt to find themselves, while making sense of their disorder and their environment.

The Master Cleanse, Dir. Daniel Goldberg 15min

When Jim falls in love with Brook, who lives in a Brooklyn commune with her 'soul friends', he knows this won't be a run-of-the-mill affair. But what he fails to realize is that her 'master cleanse' has nothing to do with cayenne, lemon, and maple syrup. (Rosemary's Baby meets Portlandia).

Friday June 13th

Callie Wants a Solo, Dir. Erick Fix 11min

Sick of crazy stage moms, a young theater teacher decides to get away for the weekend with her co-worker and ends up ruining her surprise engagement.

What Cheer?, Dir. Steven Ellis 13min

After the sudden passing of his wife, Stan (Richard Kind) finds himself in a state of shock. He tries to ignore his pain but finds himself followed by inescapable grief, or rather, followed by the inescapable What Cheer? Brigade, a 20-piece brass and percussion band drowning out his world with boisterous, ear-numbing song.

Stain Removal, Dir. Mark Russell 16min

Jules is rich, lonely and bored. To keep busy, he's been writing stories about the more exciting times from his past. When he reconnects with Constance, an old flame from the glory days, their spark is re-ignited. Is it true love or just a mess that needs to be cleaned up.

Asbestos Girl, Dir. Violet Krumbain 2min

A girl who's obsessed with Asbestos Removal Workers on a date with an Asbestos Removal Worker.

Dinner at 40, Dir. Carl Byrd 14min

The story touches on the feelings of a gay man turning 40: the panic, the doubt, and the supposed loss of his youth as he spends a 'quiet' evening at a restaurant with a small group of his closest friends. Unexpected dinner guests, crazy friends, a hot ex, cocktails and a drag queen.

Jane, then gone, Dir. Jamie Carroll 4min

How do you live with the consequences of one fateful moment?

Troy from Brooklyn, Dir. Steven Ellis 13min

In his senior year of high school Troy, copes with problems of most kids his age. Unfortunately he will make a decision that will effect his life taking him from the path he wanted for himself.

Trapped Girl, Dir. Beth Spitalny 15min

When the bathroom doorknob falls off, a girl is trapped inside. Beyond the door her life is falling apart, and when she's set free hours later she finds herself stumbling into a new reality. A tragicomedy based on a real event, Trapped Girl explores the moments in our lives when the ground shifts and everything is heightened, scary, and full of possibilities.

Absolute Threshold, Dir. Erica Rose 23min

Set in 1993 New York, Absolute Threshold tells the story of a young social worker named Charlotte who craves the intimate connection missing from her husband and finds herself overpowered by a precarious desire.

The Dispatcher, Dir. Alex Modlin 7min

While working the graveyard shift, John, a rural police officer, engages in a phone-sex session with his dispatcher, Laurie. As things escalate, where does their routine end and abuse begin?

Plastic, Dir. Olivia Saperstein 11min

When Brian buys a blowup doll, she becomes an unexpected party guest, and undergoes a slew of tribulations. An honest and vulgar tale, that reminds us that sometimes the way we treat a novelty item is none too different than the ways we treat each other.

Another Happy Anniversary, Dir. Miranda Bailey 21min

Tom and Jeanne want to be adventurous for their 10th anniversary so they decide to have a threesome...Easier said than done.

The Rev, Dir. Conor McBride 7min

A character study of local living legend The Rev

